DreamFleet 310 Knoxville Tennessee, and the Knoxville Flyers' Flying Club has proven a great resource for DreamFleet when it comes obtaining popular aircraft to photograph and fly. Stearman Model 4 Speedmail for FS2004 The last and finest biplane model constructed by the Stearman Aircraft Corporation The huge Stearman Model 4 Speedmails were the last in a long line of wonderful, sturdy work-horses produced by the Stearman Aircraft Company. It all started with a photo shoot for a forthcoming Cessna 152 project, and ended later with not only our popular Cessna Cardinal, but a lovely Cessna 310L, owned by club member and flight instructor Charles Queen. N137CM is his personal aircraft, and is not owned by the club, as the Cardinal is, but Charles instructs in all of the club's aircraft.

Produced between the years of 1929-1932, these well-constructed and yet graceful work-horses were custom made to order for various oil firms as well as wealthy sportsman-type pilots and by the many U.
